ENGLAND, FRANCE READY FOR TOURISTS

New York, May 14.—Conditions in England and France, so far as tourists are concerned, are almost normal, and both countries are adequately prepared to take care of visitors, it was declared here tonight at a banquet given by the foreign press correspondents in honor of Major Evelyn Wrench, a member of the staff of Lord Northcliffe.

Major Wrench said he was surprised to find so many erroneous ideas here regarding England. He declared food was plentiful there, and even cheaper than in this country; that labor was fully occupied at wages far in advance of pre-war scales, and that England was preparing to welcome a multitude of American tourists.

Maurice Casanave, French high commissioner to the United States, declared that all that had been said of England could be well applied to France.

Major Wrench is in this country to present to the secretary of the navy a contribution for the construction of a monument in this country in honor of the Dover Patrol.

SHE FEELS FINE NOW
Aches and pains often indicate kidneys out of order. Your kidneys surely need help—and quickly—when your hands or feet are swollen and you feel dull and sluggish, lose your appetite and your energy and there is a puffiness about the eyes. Mrs. L. Gibson, 1218 and Edison Sts., Lafayette, Colo., writes: "My kidneys were giving me a great deal of trouble for some time. I took Foley Kidney Pills and they helped me right away. I feel fine now." ### NORWICH TOWN

Rev. Richard B. Graham, rector of Christ Episcopal church, will officiate at the Sheltering Arms service Sunday afternoon. The boys' choir of that church will sing.

Rev. Gurdin F. Bailey of Elm avenue, was a caller this week at the home of his brother, Town Clerk Henry L. Bailey, of Groton.

Mrs. M. Florence Dean of Town street, president of the Woman's Relief corps, has returned from Waterbury where she attended the annual department convention.

After passing several days with relatives on Town street, Mrs. Mary Mori returned to her home Friday in Oneco.

While in Norwich Friday to attend the teachers' convention Miss Annie Smith was a caller at the home of her sister, Mrs. George A. Peck, of Otrabando avenue.

Miss Edna C. Herbert of the Norwich Art school is spending the week end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jonas J. Herbert, of Griswold.

Mrs. J. R. Hill of Spring street, Norwich, arrived Wednesday at the Johnson home, to fill out the unexpired term of the matron. Mrs. Mary Spaulding Knight, who this week returned to her home at East Grand Plain.

There was a large attendance at the First Congregational chapel Wednesday evening, when State Forester W. O. Pile gave a stereoscopic lecture on State Parks and Forests, for the benefit of the Norwich Rural association. A good sum was realized. During the evening an orchestra furnished popular music.

Chief Quartermaster Robert W. Sterry of the submarine base, who for the past two weeks has been staying over night with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sterry of Otrabando avenue, returned Friday. Mrs. Robert Sterry and little son, Robert, have been passing two weeks with the former's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Griffin, of Branford.

Every body circle of the King's Daughters met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. James L. Perkins, 47 East Town street. During the week the circle has prepared and hung a large number of May baskets to the shut-ins in various localities, including mostly those who were ill. The baskets contained fruit, candy and flowers.

CECILE LAKE CAMP FOR

Applications are already being received at the Y. M. C. A. from boys who are planning to attend the state Y. M. C. A. camp at Cedar Lake this summer. Although it is expected that some of the boys will stay for a longer period, the main party from Norwich, accompanied by Boys' Secretary Knowles will go for the first two weeks of July.

The state camp which will be in its first season this year was made possible by Ex-Senator Harold C. Hadam, who purchased some thirty acres surrounding the lake and presented the property to the state committee of the Y. M. C. A.

The leadership of the camp is such as to insure a most enjoyable and profitable experience for all who attend the camp. The camp superintendent, F. A. Stanley, state boys' work secretary, has had seventeen years of practical experience in camps for boys. For nine years Mr. Stanley conducted Camp Jewell, the splendid camp for boys of the Hartford Y. M. C. A. In addition there will be many other men of long experience in boys' work, such as boys' work secretaries and physical directors from the various associations of the state.

The boys will live in tent houses, eight boys and an adult leader to each tent. The meals will be cooked by an experienced chef which is a most important factor in camp life.

A special opportunity will be given to boys desiring to be tutored in either grade school or high school subjects. Those who desire to take up some study at camp need to make early application in order that suitable tutors may be secured.

Win Wellesley Scholarships.
In the award of honor scholarships at Wellesley college, Miss Henrietta Browning of this city is in the list of junior Wellesley college scholars and Miss Harriet Sampson of Woodstock in the senior Wellesley college scholars.

The college honors are in two classes. Students in the first or higher class are termed Durant scholars, and those in the second class Wellesley college scholars.

Unclaimed Letters.

JEWETT CITY

Sunday morning at the Methodist church Rev. J. B. Aldrich's subject is to be Testing God. Mrs. Nellie Saunders will lead the Epworth league meetings at 8 o'clock. Preaching service at 7. Rev. M. D. Fuller's Sunday morning subject at the Baptist church to the Juniors is Small Beginnings and to the Seniors is The Young People's meeting at 8.15. The evening subject is Acquaintance With God.

Rev. Clinton B. Andrews will preach at the Congregational church Sunday morning. Miss Gladys Jeffers leads the Christian Endeavor meeting at 7 o'clock. Rev. David C. Phelps of Plainfield will conduct an Episcopal service in Slater Library hall at 8.30 (daylight saving time) Sunday afternoon.

The supper served Thursday evening by the boys of the Congregational Sunday school as a result of the Red and Blue contest was a huge success. Sixty-five persons sat down to the tables, which were generously supplied with baked beans, cold ham, rolls, pickles, cake, ice cream and coffee. Especially beans! Alex McNicol, superintendent of the school, said the boys were decorated with magnolia. The boys made a great hit and were beautiful to behold, especially with the addition of bungalow aprons and burlap caps, and were most attentive waiters. After the supper the room was cleared and lively games were played. An orchestra of two mandolins, played by David Goring and David Ballou, violin by Gerald Wolf, and piano furnished music for songs and marches. The supper committee comprised David Ballou, William Marshall, Gerald Wolf and James Blair, Jr. The entertainment committee was Gerald Wolf, William McNicol and Frank Goring. Norman Parkhurst and Alex McNicol assisted the boys.

The Riverside grammar school was closed Friday on account of the teachers' convention in Norwich.

The body of the son of William Comaree of Hartford was brought to Jewett City cemetery for burial Thursday night.

A daughter is also seriously ill.

[The regular correspondents are not responsible for the recent item published regarding Frederick Wheeler and his collarbone accident.] James Blair, Jr., denies pushing the boy down, and in a crowd it is difficult to place the blame on any one person. The boy's collarbone was broken again in the second melee.
